Terms and Conditions

Read the following terms of the application for a permit to keep livestock and, after carefully reading, understanding, and considering the following, sign and date signifying your accord and agreement with those terms.

I understand that, should my application be accepted, I am being granted a privilege, not a right. I acquire no vested interest in continuing to keep livestock within the City of Knoxville beyond the stated terms of this permit. I understand that neither the City of Knoxville nor any of its instrumentalities, agents, or employees makes any representations as to continued rights to keep, sell, or maintain livestock within the City of Knoxville or to extend the duration of the permit or grant additional permits in the future. I absolve the City of Knoxville of all liability flowing from any damage or harm that I or another granted authority under this permit might cause, by negligence or otherwise, in the enjoyment of the privileges granted therein. I assert that I have read and understand the relevant provisions of the Animals Ordinances in Chapter 5 of the City of Knoxville Code and agree to comply with all relevant provisions of those ordinances governing the treatment, sale, transport, and care of the animals in question and understand the criminal and civil consequences of violating those ordinances. I further understand that, in the event of a public health or safety emergency, I agree to immediate compliance with directions of public health officials and Young-Williams Animal Services and agree to allow those officials to enter, seize control, and/or close my operations if a situation threatening the public health and/or safety develops or is discovered.

Pursuant to Chapter 5, Article IV, Section 5-101 of the City of Knoxville Code, the permittee must consent to an inspection by Animal Services officials to investigate the maintenance of sanitary conditions and proper husbandry practices. The permit shall be revocable at any time if the owner fails to maintain such standards.
